1. Sergei Lvovich Karpinsky has been arrested by the Chinese Communists in Peiping and is at present being held there. Karpinsky, source states, had been chief of the Peiping branch of the Brymer Company, a transport firm, and had been in Peiping since before World War II. The Chinese Communists had not permitted him to leave, but had not arrested him. Karpinsky had had numerous foreign friends in Peiping, some of whom subsequently had been arrested and executed as alleged spies by the Chinese Communists. Karpinsky's wife remains in Peiping or Tientsin.

2. Many Soviet nationals (former emigres) have left Dairen for the USSR. On 24 Jul 54 (fmu) Perkhurov, an engineer, departed with his family. On 3 Aug 54, Mae (fmu) Salnikova, a clerk, left with her family. Her husband, also a clerk, had been deported to the USSR in 1945. He had been a member of a Russian Fascist society. On the same date Mae (fmu) Tchekalin, a bookkeeper, and her daughter departed. Her husband, an engineer, had also been deported to the USSR in 1945. Also on 3 Aug 54, Mae (fmu) Orlova and her son left, as did many others. A.A. Ganshin, former director of Dairen's Machine Factory No 17, was scheduled to leave for the USSR on 20 Aug 54.
